2010 CALIFORNIA WINTER GAMES ICE HOCKEY

SKILLS COMPETITION AND TORCH LIGHTING CEREMONY

California Winter Games will host the first ever Skills Competition in conjunction with the Torch Lighting Ceremony. The competition and ceremony will be held at various rink locations during the weekend of the tournament. Updates will be posted on the website soon!

Parents, family, and friends will gather around the ice for the Torch Lighting Ceremony followed by the Skills Competition. Athletes and 2 coaches per team will parade on the ice for the ceremony. Team captains will get a chance to pass the torch!

The Skills Competition will give the coaches from each team the opportunity to select players for various skills. Each skill will have players from the different teams competing against each other, giving them the chance to show off their talents. More details regarding the skills competition will be made available to you when they are finalized.

Important Facts:
